Lawrence Bartolf () an OLLI-RU instructor several years, is a retired history teacher with an interest in American pop culture.

David Beardsley () is an independent philosopher and author of The Ideal in The West and The Journey Back to Where You Are: Homer’s Odyssey as Spiritual Quest. He also wrote and directed the video Emerson: The Ideal in America.

Lynette Birkins () has earned a master’s degree and professional diploma from Teachers College, Columbia University. She enjoyed 36 years as a teacher and district coordinator at Scotch Plains-Fanwood Public Schools.

Barbara Bogner () is a retired associate professor of biology who taught Human anatomy and physiology full time at Middlesex County College for 24 years. She has degrees from SUNY Stony Brook and Villanova University.

Jeff Cohen () is a painter and sculptor who received a bachelor of arts in fine arts from Upsala College in East Orange, and did graduate work at New York University. He is a commissioner at the Barron Art Center in Woodbridge, N. J.

William Fireman () is a retired attorney with a lifelong passion for musical theatre.

Charley Gerard () is the author of several books on jazz and Latin music including Jazz in Black and White: Race, Culture and Identity in the Jazz Community. He is also a saxophonist, composer, and the director of the Broken Reed Saxophone Quartet.

Margareta Greeley () received her doctorate in education from Rutgers Graduate School of Education focusing on psychology, education, and creativity. She is a painter and sculptor whose works are displayed locally and internationally.

Irwin Horowitz () is a Rutgers graduate who retired from the infrastructure technology field in 2010. He is currently volunteering for the AARP Driver Safety program, as well as the Red Cross.

Sharon Keyes () is a retired product developer in the fashion accessories industry who has had a lifelong passion for crafting.

Carol King () is a retired college professor. Her encore career was as director of the Next Step retirement program for the Princeton Senior Resource Center. Carol is a Certified Retirement Coach.

William Krause Jr. () is a retired law enforcement professional. He has studied the American Civil War, with an emphasis on Gettysburg, for over 30 years.

Maurice Mahler (), artist and historian, lectures throughout New Jersey and New York. He is a commissioner of the Cultural Arts Commission of Monroe Township, and teaches art history and life drawing for Adult Education at Monroe High School.

Michael O’Donnell () is a retired teacher/librarian with a bachelor of arts degree from St. Francis College; masters of art in American history from New York University; and masters in library science from Pratt Institute. He has taught history courses at OLLI-RU since 2003.
Ron Reich (), is a retired attorney who practiced law for 30 years in New Jersey. He has taught in the paralegal professional program at Brookdale Community College and has given seminars for the National Business Institute.

William Roufberg (), a retired chairperson and supervisor at Princeton High School, author and lecturer, has taught for OLLI-RU for many years.

Jessica Sand () has a master’s degree in microbiology and public health (Wagner College) and in cell and molecular biology (Brooklyn College). Currently retired, she was a professor at Union County College for 31 years where she taught anatomy and physiology, microbiology, nutrition, pathology and medical microbiology.

Roz and Steve Shaw (), own a business that specializes in educational programs. They have taught adult learners in the ENCORE Program in Middletown, N.Y., at Brookdale Community College, and at OLLI-RU.

Harvey Singer () holds a bachelor of arts degree in economics and political science from the City College of New York and a master’s of business administration in finance and investments from Baruch College.

Bruce Tucker () holds a bachelor of arts degree in political science and history and a master’s in information technology and project management. A local area historian and living history presenter, Bruce has lectured in the metropolitan area and has been an instructor with OLLI-RU since 2009.

Vandana Walia () has a masters of arts degree in English literature and 30 years’ experience in teaching in India. She has been an instructor at OLLI-RU for several years.

Michael Wallach () is a retired cell biologist with a keen interest in history. He has developed several presentation series on a broad range of topics.

Larry Wolfert () has a bachelor degree from Boston University and a masters of business administration from the Stern School of Business (NYU). He is the founder and head of the Folk Music Club of East Brunswick, and a member of the folk duo “The End of the Line.”